Priyanshu Kumar is a distinguished legal professional with nearly 19 years of extensive experience in providing top-tier legal advisory services, specializing in mergers and acquisitions (M&A), private equity (PE), venture capital (VC), joint ventures (JV), and similar transactions. His expertise encompasses drafting and preparing term sheets, conducting comprehensive legal due diligence, and crafting detailed reports. Priyanshu is proficient in drafting and finalizing a wide range of transaction documents, including share purchase agreements, share subscription agreements, shareholders agreements, investment agreements, and JV agreements, along with various other commercial agreements. Currently, Priyanshu serves as a special counsel at ALC Lawyers & Counsels, where he leverages his expertise to advise clients on major corporate and commercial practices in Oman and the UAE. His vast legal acumen and strategic insights make him an invaluable asset to the firm's clients.

Priyanshu is also a member of the board of advisors for numerous companies across India, Singapore, Dubai, and Hong Kong, reflecting his deep connections and influence within the global business community. Residing in the United Kingdom for last 8 years, he continues to make significant contributions to the legal field on an international scale. Before his tenure at ALC, Priyanshu practiced as a corporate finance lawyer with Abraham LLC in Singapore starting in 2006. He later advanced to become a partner at Abraham Law Office, an Indian associate firm he established in 2010. His career also includes an influential stint with Michael Hwang, one of Singapore's most eminent jurists and the former Chief Justice of the Dubai International Financial Courts, where Priyanshu participated in numerous arbitrations across United Kingdom, Singapore, India, Malaysia, the Philippines, and Indonesia.

Qualified to practice in India and enrolled with the Bar Council of Delhi, Priyanshu is also an executive member of the Indian National Bar Association and a member of the Birmingham Law Society in the United Kingdom. His recent memberships with the Young Singapore International Arbitration Centre (YSIAC Singapore) and the London Young Lawyers Group further underscore his active engagement with the international legal community. Priyanshu holds a master's degree in law (Corporate & Financial Services Law) from National University of Singapore.

Renowned for his resourcefulness and robust connections within the Global Indian Business community, Priyanshu has advised a diverse clientele ranging from medium-sized firms and blue-chip multinational corporations to family offices and ultra-high-net-worth individuals (UHNIs). His extensive travel for legal assignments has equipped him with a broad and nuanced understanding of various legal landscapes. Priyanshu's industry experience is vast, covering sectors such as shipping, hospitality, healthcare, energy, oil and gas, manufacturing, technology, food, and retail. His clients value his responsiveness and his focus on providing strategic advice tailored to further their business objectives in each transaction. Priyanshu Kumar stands out as a seasoned and highly respected corporate and commercial lawyer dedicated to excellence in legal practice and client service.
