

Alaa Nizam
Head of Litigation
LLM (Business law)
E: anizam@alc-firmc.om

Languages:

Arabic
English

Alaa Nizam is a bilingual Syrian lawyer with more than 12 years of experience in legal field. He graduated from Damascus University and practiced law by joining Damascus Bar Association in 2010. Alaa holds a Higher Diploma from Panthéon-Assas University (Paris II) and a master's degree from Damascus University in International And National Business Law.

Alaa was trained and worked in a leading international law firm in Damascus before moving to Muscat in 2014 to work in a local law firm then to head the legal department in a famous group of companies later. Since 2014, Alaa has advised on major and complex legal matters during his practice in Oman. By dealing with number of international and regional firms and clients.

Alaa has major experience in dealing with Commercial, Civil and Labor cases, in addition to his vast knowledge in drafting and reviewing contracts in both Arabic and English languages.

Further to his current experience, Alaa retains quite deep knowledge on managing complex disputes from the initial stages till the enforcement of the relevant orders and awards. During his previous experience, Alaa had the opportunity to run the operational aspects of the relationships with his clients directly.