

Daniyal Khalid

Corporate Associate
Pakistani Qualified Lawyer
E: dkhalid@alc-firm.com

Languages:

English
Urdu

Daniyal Khalid boasts a distinguished career trajectory marked by a meticulous blend of expertise in corporate law and dispute resolution. Having commenced his legal journey within the esteemed chambers of a premier Pakistani litigation firm, Mr. Khalid meticulously honed his craft for three years, acquiring a profound understanding of the intricacies inherent to the Pakistani legal landscape. He has right of audience at the Islamabad High Court, Pakistan.

Subsequently, he embarked upon an enriching tenure within the corporate milieu of Oman, where he spent two formative years immersed in the dynamic realm of Omani corporate practice. During this tenure, he navigated the complexities of corporate law with finesse, contributing significantly to the success of a reputable Omani firm.

Within his domain of expertise, Mr. Khalid specializes in understanding diverse transactional frameworks. Notably, he has facilitated seamless company formations, orchestrated intricate mergers and acquisitions, and fostered robust joint ventures.

In the realm of dispute resolution, Daniyal Khalid has emerged as a trusted authority, harnessing his acumen to navigate both domestic and international arbitrations. By delivering strategic legal guidance grounded in a profound comprehension of relevant laws and precedents, he consistently drives proceedings towards favorable outcomes.

Committed to professional excellence, Daniyal remains steadfast in his pursuit of staying abreast of the latest legal developments and regulatory changes. By ensuring the firm's alignment with the ever-evolving legal landscape, he exemplifies dedication, experience, and proficiency, thus cementing his status as a valued asset in furnishing clients with comprehensive and unparalleled legal services.